Frequently Asked Questions

This document provides answers to commonly asked questions regarding Roger Store products, compatibility, usage, and troubleshooting.

Q: How do I pair my Bluetooth headphones or earbuds?

A: Turn on the device and hold the power or Bluetooth button for 3-5 seconds until the LED indicator flashes. Then, open the Bluetooth settings on your phone or computer, locate the device name, and select it to pair.

Q: Are your gaming keyboards and mice compatible with both Windows and Mac?

A: Yes, all our keyboards and mice offer standard plug-and-play compatibility with both Windows and macOS. However, advanced software features (such as custom macro assignments or RGB lighting control) may require specific Windows-only software depending on the model.

Q: How long does a wireless headset battery typically last?

A: Most of our wireless gaming headsets and Bluetooth headphones provide between 15 to 30 hours of battery life on a single full charge, depending on volume levels and whether RGB lighting or active noise cancellation (ANC) is turned on.

Q: Can I use a gaming controller purchased from Roger Store with a PC?

A: Yes, the controllers we sell are fully compatible with PCs. You can connect them via the included USB cable, a dedicated wireless dongle, or a standard Bluetooth connection.

Q: Do your products include charging cables and other necessary accessories?

A: Yes, all rechargeable wireless devices (such as wireless mice, keyboards, and headphones) come with their required USB charging cables in the box.

Q: How can I troubleshoot a device or monitor that is not turning on?

A: First, ensure that the device is fully charged or properly plugged into a working power outlet. For monitors, check that the display cable is securely connected to both the monitor and the computer. If it is a wireless device, try resetting it by holding the power button for 10 seconds.

Q: What is your standard product availability and delivery time?

A: In-stock items typically ship within 24 hours. Standard delivery takes 3-5 business days, while expedited shipping options are available at checkout for faster delivery.
